

HIGHLIGHTS 2022

THE EIB INSTITUTE

The EIB Institute was set up as part the EIB Group (EIB and EIF) to promote and support academic, cultural and social initiatives with European stakeholders and the public at large. The Institute is a key pillar of the EIB Group's community and citizenship engagement and is headed by Shiva Dustdar, director since June 2022.

WELL-BEING, IMPACT AND INNOVATION

An unprecedented humanitarian aid package of more than €3.5 million supported those affected by the war in Ukraine. We also made donations following humanitarian catastrophes in Tonga, Indonesia and Pakistan.

WaveOut (Austria), Rosi and Newcy (France) and AlgaEnergy (Spain) were the winners of the Social Innovation Tournament 2022.

Hale (Italy) was the winner of the Audience Choice Award. More than 200 candidates from 27 European countries applied.

Tucuvi (SIT 2020) and Desolenator (SIT 2016) are among more than 20 SIT alumni who have received or are receiving additional EU funding to scale up their business.

49 schools and non profit organisations in 11 countries benefited from our donations of 960 laptops and computers.

We organised “Know your hazard”, the first European conference on community disaster preparedness.

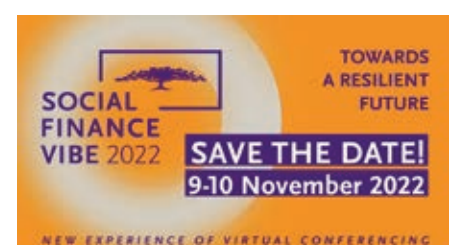

We launched a new financial education programme in Cyprus.

We supported microfinance events in cooperation with EMN

and MFC

ENHANCING KNOWLEDGE

70 students from 18 universities attended the EIB Summer School 2022.

UNIVERSIDADE DE COIMBRA

and joined 16 universities across a number of EU countries where we delivered 75 EIB lectures.

For the first time we delivered courses outside the EU at EUROMED University of Fez (Morocco).

and

won the EIBURS research grants for 2022-2025.

UNIVERSITÉ DU LUXEMBOURG

received STAREBEI grants for young researchers.

Conferences organised by the EIB Climate Chair at EUI and the Sciences Po Climate Chair prepared the debate for COP 27.

21 professionals from 14 countries graduated from the 6th edition of the Certificate in Law and Regulation of Inclusive Finance with

SciencesPo
esade

carried out student consultancy projects (capstones).

The team from ISCTE (Lisbon) won the European Ethics Bowl 2022 held in Luxembourg, at the EIB.

We organised the first ever with LUISS university.

BOOSTING TALENT

Belonging, the largest ever exhibition of the EIB collection spanning eight different venues, in Limerick (Ireland) drew 26,000 visitors, making it the most attended external exhibition to date.

Some 700 persons visited "Unravelling - New Acquisitions in the EIB Collection" during the open house Private Art Kirchberg.

Liviu Bulea (Romania), Pauline-Rose Dumas (France), Elsa Mencagli (Italy) and Laure Winants (Belgium) were the laureates of the 10th edition of the Artists Development Programme, mentored by Tatiana Trouvé, and held at Cité des Arts in Paris. Another artist, Nikolay Karabinovych, received financial and formal backing, further demonstrating the Group's support to Ukraine.

The Institute joined the

and the

Scouting for diverse talent for the EIB art collection continued, resulting in the acquisition of work by socially-engaged artists with an Asian heritage.

The 13th edition of  BEHIND THE LENS, the EIB staff photo competition attracted 274 submissions. The winning entries were showcased in an exhibition and a printed publication.

Cecilia Bartoli is the new President of Europa Nostra, our partner in the 7 Most Endangered programme to safeguard Europe's endangered monuments.

European Investment Bank | Institute

European Investment Bank Institute
98-100, boulevard Konrad Adenauer
L-2950 Luxembourg
+352 4379 75000
info@institute.eib.org
http://institute.eib.org

institute.eib.org

     @EIBInstitute